

I'm Gonna Miss Him

Randy Swift 5/18/08

Born and raised in Kentucky not far from Paradise!
A little rowdy in his younger days but he turned out all right
I'm not for sure how old he was when he grabbed the gospel gun
But he held on for dear life until his war was won

And I'm gonna miss him as I travel down life's road
And I'm so thankful for all the good seed that he sewed
All the times he picked me up when I struggled with my load
I'm gonna miss him as I travel down life's road...

He didn't care for religion! Said it always left him dry!
He preferred a relationship with the man up in the sky.
Such a profound teacher and revelator of God's word
He brought understanding to ears that before had never heard
